Lincolnshire Police Officer Receives Life-Saving Award

(LINCOLNSHIRE, III.) The Lincolnshire Police Department proudly recognizes Officer Robert (Bob) Skrobot with the esteemed Life-Saving Award in recognition of his exceptional efforts in administering life-saving CPR.

In a moment of crisis, Officer Skrobot exemplified dedication and professionalism as he responded to an “emergency assist fire department” call for service on May 3 at a residence located in Trafalgar Square.

Arriving at the scene, Officer Skrobot discovered an unresponsive individual and immediately initiated cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR). His swift and decisive actions played a vital role in sustaining the person's life until paramedics arrived. The competence and skill demonstrated by Officer Skrobot in performing CPR under intense pressure were crucial in stabilizing the individual's condition. His commitment to the preservation of life is a testament to the core values and professionalism of the Lincolnshire Police Department.

Chief Joseph Leonas expressed deep admiration for Officer Skrobot's remarkable performance, stating, "Officer Skrobot's proficiency and dedication in administering life-saving CPR is a true reflection of the caliber of our officers. His actions embody the highest standards of service and compassion, and I am immensely proud to present him with this Life-Saving Award."

Lincolnshire Police Department's Life-Saving Award is a distinction reserved for individuals who display exceptional bravery and resourcefulness in critical situations, showcasing the unwavering commitment of law enforcement officers to safeguarding the lives of others. The Village of Lincolnshire extends its heartfelt gratitude and congratulations to Officer Skrobot for his efforts in saving a life through his exemplary CPR skills.

Officer Skrobot will be formally recognized by Mayor Elizabeth Brandt and the Village Board at the June 26 Regular Village Board Meeting.

The Village of Lincolnshire, 1957, is a northern suburb of Chicago and is conveniently adjacent to the Tri-State Tollway. Lincolnshire is home to 7,940 residents, two nationally-recognized public school districts, and over 400 businesses – a number of which are global headquarters and Fortune 500 companies.
