Lincolnshire Police Respond to Fatal Vehicle Crash (LINCOLNSHIRE, ILL.)

On September 26, 2023, at 8:14 p.m., officers dispatched to Milwaukee Avenue and Aptakisic Road for a traffic crash with injuries. Upon arrival, an officer discovered an unresponsive 79-year-old male driver from Fox River Grove. The officer and members of the Lincolnshire-Riverwoods Fire Protection District immediately initiated cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and other lifesaving measures. The unresponsive driver was the sole occupant of a 2004 black Lexus RX330, traveling northbound on Milwaukee Avenue, attempting to turn west onto Aptakisic Road.

The other vehicle, a 2010 red Toyota Rav-4, traveled south on Milwaukee Avenue and proceeded through the intersection at Milwaukee Avenue and Aptakisic Drive. Occupants of the second vehicle included a 19-year-old driver from Buffalo Grove and two juvenile passengers, aged 16 and 17 years old.

Following the crash, emergency vehicles transported subjects to nearby hospitals. Doctors at Advocate Condell Medical Center in Libertyville eventually pronounced the unresponsive male deceased. Further treatment is required for the 17-year-old front passenger. The 16-year-old received treatment and is now released, and the driver of the Toyota received transportation to Northwestern Medicine Lake Forest Hospital, where medical staff treated and released him.

The Major Crash Assistance Team (MCAT) activated due to the unresponsive subject's condition. Authorities are continuing to investigate the crash.

The Village of Lincolnshire, 1957, is a northern suburb of Chicago and is conveniently adjacent to the Tri-State Tollway.
