Lincolnshire Police Department Reminds Drivers to Drive Safe Super Bowl Weekend

(LINCOLNSHIRE, IL) Super Bowl weekend is here, and the Lincolnshire Police Department reminds football fans and Super Bowl partygoers designated drivers are the best defense against the dangers of impaired driving. If your Super Bowl celebration involves impairing substances, plan for a safe ride home with a sober driver. If you're hosting the party, designate sober drivers ahead of time.

The Lincolnshire Police Department will conduct extra patrols and traffic enforcement throughout the weekend. Last year, the department made more than 40 arrests for driving under the influence of alcohol, including two during Super Bowl week.

Heading out for the big game? Follow these tips for a safe and enjoyable evening:

- Never drive impaired. Choose a sober driver or use a rideshare service. If medication affects your alertness, arrange a safe ride.
- If you see an impaired driver, call 9-1-1. Impaired drivers endanger everyone on the road.
- Stop friends or loved ones from driving impaired—take their keys and help them get home safely.
- Always buckle up.

The Village of Lincolnshire, 1957, is a northern suburb of Chicago and is conveniently adjacent to the Tri-State Tollway. Lincolnshire is home to 7,940 residents, two nationally-recognized public school districts, and over 400 businesses – a number of which are global headquarters and Fortune 500 companies.
